The building administration is hereby authorized to make judgments; being as fair, impartial and consistent as possible as to what is neat, clean, modest, and appropriate. The decision of the building administration in these matters is final.

Coaches, sponsors, or other persons in charge of an extracurricular activity will regulate the dress and grooming of the students participating in that activity.

If the principal determines that a student's grooming or clothing violates the school's dress code, the student will be given an opportunity to correct the problem at school. If not corrected, the student may be assigned to in-school suspension for the remainder of the day, until the problem is corrected, or until a parent or designee brings an acceptable change of clothing to the school.
